Club Facilities

Members with their wives and other guests, can now enjoy morning coffee, lunch and dinner prepared by Gerald and Julie our Stewards. As we reported in the April newsletter, soon after their arrival they produced comprehensive menus for lunch-time bar meals/snacks and sandwiches which are served in the Cooper room. Now there is also a standard evening menu for members and their guests. We've received lots of favourable feedback so next time you're wondering where to go for lunch try the Club. Apart from getting very good value it's also supporting the Club in a practical way.

We hope that as many members as possible will take advantage of these new facilities and of course individually tailored menus will still be available for pre-booked functions. If you have something in mind such as an anniversary, birthday or private dinner in surroundings of character, just talk to the Stewards.

There is no need to pre-book at lunchtimes although a telephone call would be sensible to check availability for an evening meal
